

Mazars, Invest Hong Kong and Hong Kong Trade Development Council are pleased to invite you to a seminar:

DOING BUSINESS IN HONG KONG

Wednesday, 20 April 2016 – Mazars in Poland, ul. Piękna 18, 00-549 Warsaw 2:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Being ranked the “World’s freest economy”*, Hong Kong has been a city of choice for establishing local companies and regional offices for many decades and has a number of features which are attractive to overseas investors. By offering one of the lowest profits tax rates in Asia and excellent transportation facilities (natural harbour, modern docking facilities and state-of-the-art international airport), Hong Kong is an attractive location for international trade and business.

The seminar will be addressed by representatives from the Hong Kong Trade Development Council, InvestHK, as well as Mazars in Poland. It will highlight trade and investment opportunities, as well as present Hong Kong as a business location and a premier gateway to the mainland Chinese market.

* In 2016 Hong Kong has retained its title as the world's freest economy for the 22nd year in a row, according to the latest Index of Economic Freedom.
