Jarosław Bochenek becomes partner of Mazars in Poland

Mazars in Poland has announced the expansion of its senior team with the appointment of a new partner – Jarosław Bochenek. It reflects the importance that the firm places on fostering and recognising excellence in leadership in its business.

Jaroslaw joined Mazars in 2008 as head of Kraków office. He became member of the Management Board of Mazars Audyt Sp. z o.o. shortly afterwards. He has several years of experience in auditing financial statements, accounting and finance advisory to the companies in different economic sectors acquired with Mazars as well as with a “Big Four” company in Poland and abroad.

Jaroslaw Bochenek is a graduate of Management Faculty at Cracow Academy of Economics. He completed his postgraduate studies in accounting and finance at Bristol Business School (UK) and he obtained an MBA diploma of the University of Bristol and the Ecole Nationale des Ponts et Chaussées (France). Jaroslaw is a statutory auditor and member of the Association of Certified Chartered Accountants (ACCA).

“During his years at Mazars Poland Jarek has created and developed our office in Kraków where he successfully represents Mazars in local and regional business circles. His dynamism that is indispensable in this job, ability to manage the team, appreciation and trust of clients and partners – all this has logically resulted in his promotion to local partner,” said Michel Kiviattowski – Managing Partner of Mazars in Poland.
